

2019 Andrew Carnegie Medals for Excellence Award Ceremony Table Reservations

Booklist and RUSA are pleased to offer 2019 ALA Annual Conference publishers and attendees the opportunity to sponsor a table at the Andrew Carnegie Medals for Excellence award ceremony on Saturday, June 22, 2019, in Washington, DC.

To reserve your table(s), complete the form on the reverse and e-mail by June 1, 2019, to: Ninah Moore (nmoore@ala.org). Seating is not reserved until payment is received.

Please note: the following information is for table sponsorships only, not for individual ticket requests. If you wish to order one or more individual tickets, you may do so via regular conference registration at <https://2019.alaannual.org/registration/ticketed-events#RUSA>

Individual ticket holders will find open seating at non-reserved tables. If you order 10 tickets through ALA Registration, you will be ordering 10 individual open-seating tickets.

Details on Table Reservations

How many seats are there at each table? Each table can accommodate up to 10 people, and all tables will be located in the front of the room.

How much does a table cost? Please see pricing levels outlined below.

What is included in my sponsorship?

- Ten tickets to the Andrew Carnegie Medals for Excellence award ceremony and reception
- Ten drink tickets
- Sponsorship recognition in award ceremony PowerPoint
- Sponsorship recognition in award ceremony remarks (Gold sponsors only)
- Pre-event acknowledgement in Booklist's June REaD ALERT newsletter and RUSA's June Bulletin and RUSA Update news (Gold sponsors only)

Can I purchase a partial table? Anyone attending the award ceremony may place a table order, but the table must be purchased as a whole and paid for in a single transaction. Please note, individually purchased tickets may not be applied toward the cost of the table.

I need two or more tables. Will they be located together? We will make every effort to locate tables together, as long as your tables are ordered at the same time and at the same pricing level.

How will I receive my table tickets? Tickets will be delivered onsite to your booth or available at the pre-event registration desk. You can then distribute the tickets to your table guests.
